Portris, Inc
Corporate Policy Statement ("CPS"):
Conflict of Interests
1.0 POLICY
1.1 It is Portris' policy that all of its business transactions and relationships must be free from even the appearance of impropriety. It is the responsibility of all Portris' employees to act in a fair and impartial manner in all business dealings, to place the interests of the Corporation over personal interests in matters relating to Portris business, and to avoid financial, business, or other transactions or situations in which personal interests might conflict with, or be construed to conflict with, the interests of Portris. Such situations may arise from relationships with customers, competitors, and suppliers, present or prospective employees, or from the acquisition or use of company assets for personal gain.
1.2 While this policy applies to all Portris employees, those employees who
